Our Resumé of Memories

These are our treasures kept apart,
Cradled in velvet in our hearts,
Graven profiles, picture-clear,
Perfect moments, priceless–dear,
Etched in ageless time to be
Our Resumé of memories.

These hours we have spent remembering
The tender times, the fun times.
The laughter and the precious tears
Are our emotions that represent this year.
These precious treasures we will leave Stored in our Resumé of memories.

These are our dreams, our desires, our goals.
We keep them buried within our soul.
With fingertips of heart and mind
We trace each profile there defined.
These treasures none can take from us,
Our Resumé of memories.

Remember freezing fingers poking paper napkins into a maze of chicken wire, and the pride we felt as our accomplishments traveled down Jackson Street
during the Homecoming Parade;
the joy coming from the warmth of the Homecoming Bonfire; classes meeting in the thrill of athletic competition as the gridiron greeted the newest pro-girls teams; spirit was high and time was climaxed in moments of fun.

Remember the special faces of friends and the moments shared together during lunch and between classes;
soft quiet times
found in one's council or another's companionship; meaningful snatches
of time caught forever.

Remember when spirit soared
as our teams
aimed for perfection;
the pride shown by all Tullahoma
as our baseball team defended its state championship title;
the happiness displayed in working together—planning, moving, giving, and taking
to create undying spirit.

COOK the CAVALIERS

Remember us as individuals greeting each day with enthusiasm
as a unique carefree experience.

Remember the beauty found in those times of silence when we needed to be alone
to free our minds
from the worries and cares of everyday life;
or when we sat down
in thought and concentration in order to create a feeling of individuality.

Remember the good times
just walking down
the hall hoping to dodge the obstacle course deviously prepared by the Senior boys;
the day
all THS rolled back to the '50's when Rock was young with red lipstick,
bobby socks,
and greasy hair;
the fun,
hard work,
and determination involved in dedicating oneself to a particular goal.

GRAND CENTRAL STATION

Remember the memories
of us as a whole,
working, playing, cheering,
and dreaming together
to reach our goals.
For one thing is sure about tomorrow;
we will remember today.

Hard Work and Spirit Aid in Homecoming Preparations

Homecoming preparations commenced with a busy week of twisting napkins, molding chicken wire, and enjoying memorable times. Each float, representing the creativity of its class, presented the tireless effort of spirited students.

Spirit soared at the pre-game bonfire as the flames reduced a blazing mountain of boxes to ashes. Wildcat supporters departed, ready for the following night's clash with the Cookeville Cavaliers.

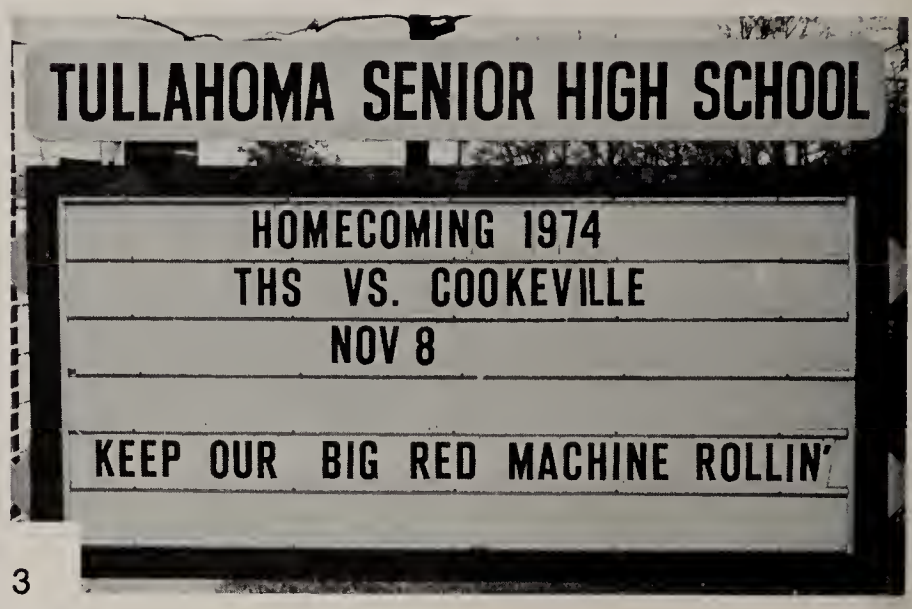

As the annual parade progressed down South Jackson Street, Homecoming approached its peak. Chants echoed from the inspired Senior girls as they proudly supported the Wildcats. In float competition there was an upset when the Junior class captured first place, leaving the Senior class second, and Sophomores third.

Wildcat Victory Brightens Homecoming Night

Homecoming '74 began with a promising first half between the Tullahoma Wildcats and the Cookeville Cavaliers which gave way to a well performed halftime show, featuring the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Donna Bourdet. Her court consisted of Sherry Parks, Senior attendant; Leianne Smith, Junior attendant; and Diana Parrish, Sophomore attendant.

Wildcat fans watched while their team romped to an easy victory, ending the game with a score of 33 to 13.

Festivities continued with a Cinderella Ball sponsored by the Student Council and accompanied by the music of the "Rhythm Aces." As in the fairy tale, the clock chimed twelve and the dance ended.

Senior Talent Revealed in "... boys and girls together"

Music and comedy blended perfectly in the Senior Class Production of ". . . boys and girls together . . ." Directors, Mrs. Benek, Miss Woodall, and Miss Northern were aided by Mrs. Peggy Burton, Mrs. Beverly Long, and Mrs. Brenda George. Seniors spent several weeks working on sets and costumes, and endless hours of rehearsal also proved worthwhile.

The two-act play portrayed a young girl's struggle to find a career in New York in the 1890's. The annual production ended with a standing ovation.

Senior Day Brings Together Class of '75

Celebrating Senior Day with a luncheon in their honor, the Class of 1975 gathered together to reminisce, receive words of wisdom from guest speakers, and feast to their futures.

Providing entertainment were Coach John Rickman, Billy Welsh, and Seniors Claire Galbraith and Jerry Neal. Coach Hulon Watson delivered a meaningful speech on the topic "Open Doors."

The day, December 19th, called upon the talents of the Home Economics Department to emphasize the holiday spirit with Christmas decorations. Combined efforts of students, teachers, and guests resulted in a glorious success —a day to remember.

A Potpourri of Events Concludes Year at THS

Students at THS witnessed a variety of events this year. Fabulous Fifties Day brought greasy hair, white T-shirts, and bobby socks into the halls of THS once more. The Interact Junior Mess Pageant, won by Mike Byrom, was a success; while an opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors," brought culture and Christmas spirit to THS. Human Relations Day, an experiment sponsored by the Student Council, helped everyone make friends. Senator Bill Brock spoke in assembly and presented the school an American flag. The whole year was packed with special assemblies that highlighted the students' days.

Seniors Shatter Junior, Sophomore Intramural Hopes

This year's intramural clash resulted in two ultimate senior victories under the direction of Thomas Hickerson and Zane Holmes for the boys, while Teresa Turner and Emma Crutchfield coached the girls. The games were quite heated as each class showed eager anticipation for victory. This year's Intramural All-tournament teams consisted of: Seniors—Candi Corral, Eunice Brown, Suzanne Lawson, Mike Howell, Greg Browning, and Tim Finch. Juniors—Tammera Bridges, Dana Prosser, David Davis, John Jones, and Sophomore Monnie Higgs.

Candidates Compete in Close Student Council Election

Posters, speeches, and suspense marked the week of Student Council Elections. This year brought new procedures into the event. The candidates were only allowed to hang five convincing posters to catch the student's eyes. The speeches were highlighted by talented guitar-picking, comical skits, and "oldie-but-goodie" songs.

Announcing their candidacy for President of the Student Council were Juniors, Jay Harris and Mike Stamps. Vice-President openings went to Greg Scott, Chris Tidwell, and Paige Hawkersmith, all of the Sophomore Class. Patty Key, Amanda Motlow, and Carol Hall, who later withdrew, were nominated by their classmates to run for secretary. Willing to take on the responsibilities of treasurer were Donna Johnson, Linda Neal, and Susan Baird.

Students Elect Stamps, Tidwell, Key and Johnson

Campaigning came to an end with the casting of ballots in homerooms. Mike Stamps was elected to preside over the 1975-76 Student Council while Patty Key was elected to the office of secretary. Run-offs between Chris Tidwell and Greg Scott for vice-president, Donna Johnson and Linda Neal for treasurer created an air of suspense until the next day when deciding votes were cast.

The conclusion to a week of hard work left these four people with the responsibility of the student body voice for the 1975-76 year: Mike Stamps, president; Chris Tidwell, vice-president; Patty Key, secretary; Donna Johnson, treasurer.

Great Gatsby Sets Theme for Pageant '75

Great Gatsby set the theme for the 1975 Miss Tullahoma Pageant, the final project of the Senior Class. Many students helped make the annual contest a success by collecting gum wrappers and pop tops for chains. Additional foil chains, prepared by the cosmetology classes, were used to complete the effect. Against a black backdrop, the stage seemed to sparkle. Adding a touch of elegance, a silver chandelier, created by Clair Hodge, was centered over a silver throne for the reigning royalty. Mrs. Donna Benek assisted with decorations while Miss Trellis Northam and Mrs. Blanche McClure coordinated the pageant. Mrs. Fredia Flack directed program preparation using a cover designed by Valerie Ledford. Ticket sales and ushering were handled by Mr. Homer Layne and Mr. Bob Crosslin, while Coach Milner Carden directed coke sales.

Mr. Jacky Dickey of WJIG radio was master of ceremonies. Performing the difficult task of selecting the court for Miss and Little Miss Tullahoma were judges Mr. Larry Burger, Ms. Shirley Brodie and Mrs. Sadie Chandler.

The reigning court for 1975 consisted of Theresa Davison, First Runner-up; Treva Spencer, Second Runner-up; Miriam Adderholdt, Third Runner-up; and Donna Chriss, Fourth Runner-up. Crowned as Little Miss Tullahoma was Cindy Jean Carter.

"Sweetheart" Adds Nostalgic Touch to Spring Formal

"Sweetheart," the entertaining band, contributed an air of nostalgia with their thirties costumes. Under the guidance of Mrs. Jimmie Lou Smith, the art classes gave of their creative talents and established the theme Great Gatsby Gala for the 1975 Spring Formal. Sponsored by the Junior Class, the dance seemed to carry students back in time to the 1930's.

Posed in front of a 1936 Roadster, loaned by Mr. Monroe McKill, a portrait of each couple was made by Mr. Robert Wiser in order to preserve memories of the evening. Refreshments, coordinated by Mrs. Ruby Murphy, filled the appetites of couples between dances. The boys compiled a regular season record of three wins and two losses. The thinclads placed 13th out of 28 teams in the A.F. Bridges Invitational and 9th out of 27 in the David Lipscomb Invitational. They also took 10th in the Regional meet from a field of 29 teams.

Matmen Post 11-1 Season; Seize District Title

The 1974-75 season proved rewarding for the THS matmen who posted an 11-1 record, losing only to McGavock. With nine men qualifying for the regional, the Cats seized the district title in the first wrestling tournament ever held at THS. Coach David Duvall led the grapplers to victories in two invitational tournaments at Bellevue and Shelbyville.

Mike Clowers, 98 pound Junior, won the District, then placed second in the regional, second in the sub-state, and became the first matman to advance to the state, where he was eliminated in the semi-finals by the eventual state champ. Billy Sparks took the district crown in the 119-pound class accompanied by David Cleveland at 126 pounds and Tim Stubblefield in the unlimited class. Placing second in the district were Jeff Glass, 138 pounds, and Stan Young, 155-pound class. Tullahoma Cagers Have Rebuilding Season in 1974-75

The Wildcat Basketball Team went through a rebuilding year during 1974-75 in posting a 9-11 record. Head Coach Dale Phelps and assistant Hulon Watson had no lettermen returning after losing all five starters from the previous season.

The team was led by the play of the only three seniors on the team: Thomas Hickerson, Zane Holmes, and Phil Urbaniak. Holmes was the leading scorer with almost 14 points per game, followed by Hickerson with an 11 point average. Urbaniak and Junior Phil Muse were next with 10 point averages. Juniors Steve Laws and John Mannon along with Sophomore Anthony Vaughn also held starting positions during the year.

Three Senior Players Receive District Basketball Honors

All three Wildcat Seniors received some distinguishing honor during the season. Zane Holmes was named to the Nashville Banner's All-District team, while Thomas Hickerson received honorable mention. Phil Urbaniak made the All-District tournament team.

Tullahoma's losing record could be traced to the inability to win away from home. The Cats posted a 6-3 record at home, including a narrow loss to highly-ranked Fayetteville. On the road they managed only three wins in ten games.

Kittens Win District, Region; Advance to State

The 1974-75 Tullahoma Wildkittens rolled to the finest basketball season in THS history. Coach Tommy Whitaker led his charges to an 18-1 regular season record, then to seven straight victories in the tournaments before losing to eventual state champ Bradley County, in the state semi-finals.

The Kittens won their first 13 games of the season before suffering their first and only regular season loss, a 30-28 decision at Warren County. They avenged that loss in the District championship game with a 28-23 victory at Winchester. The Lady Cats then took their first Regional championship ever by downing Red Bank 43-32, Livingston, 57-37, and York, 33-32 in overtime in the finals. Next came a 52-37 victory over North in the Sub-state, putting them in the State tournament for the second consecutive year.

In the State tournament, held at MTSU's Murphy Center, the Kittens set several state records, including the greatest winning margin ever in a state tournament game, in their 57-16 victory over Memphis Frayser in the first round. The 41 point margin broke the record of 35 set by Porter in 1969. They also set new marks for most turnovers forced (41), fewest points allowed (16), and fewest field goals allowed (5), in a game. In the semi-finals they ran into undefeated Bradley County and lost 38-33.

THS Guards Compile Impressive Defensive Record

The Tullahoma guards—Debbie Parrish, Sheila Scott, Sherry Seely, and substitute Robbie Bailey—had possibly the best defensive record in the state. They allowed only 31 points a game and held such teams as Warren County and Bradley County to their lowest point totals of the year.

All six Tullahoma starters received awards during the season. Parrish became the first THS player ever named to the All-Midstate and All-State teams. Sheila Scott was named to the All-Midstate second team and received honorable mention on All-State. Parrish, Scott, and Joan Mealy were named to the Nashville Banner's All-District 11 team. In tournament play Reba Collins, Lynn Liggett, Joan Mealy, Sherry Seely, and Parrish made both All-District and Region while Scott was on All-Region. Parrish was the only player named to the All-State Tournament team.

1975 Baseball Squad Defends State Title

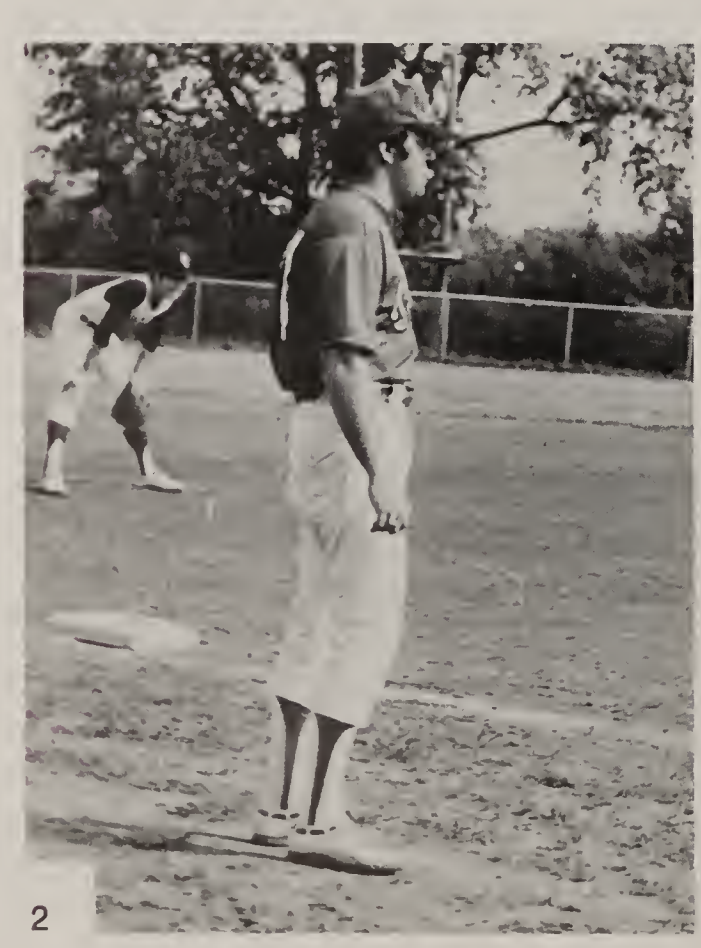

The 1975 Tullahoma Wildcat baseball team faced the task of defending their 1974 state championship and upheld their image with a 16-3 regular season record. Under the guidance of Coaches Jerry Mathis and Ted Frisby, the Cats rolled up victory strings of six and nine games and led the district with a 9-0 record.

Coach Mathis had five of his nine starters that took the Tennessee state crown last June returning to anchor his '75 squad, including three of the four infielders: Greg Hemken at first base, Ronnie James at second, and Mike Howell at shortstop. Also returning were outfielder Tim Finch and pitcher Joey Tuck.

The "Big Red Machine" compiled a team batting average of .333 and scored 117 runs during the season. Two players topped the .400 batting mark, Scott Darlington with .425 and Mike Stamps with .403. James and Howell were close behind with .397 and .381, respectively. Tuck anchored the pitching staff, striking out 54 batters in 45 innings pitched.

THS Sluggers Win Third Consecutive District Title

The Wildcat Baseball Team captured the District 15 Title for the third consecutive year by defeating Franklin County 3-0 in the championship game.

The Cats received a first round bye, then defeated Grundy County 9-3 to move into the winners' bracket of the double elimination tournament. Phil Muse came off the bench and pitched six scoreless innings to pick up the win. Next they clobbered Moore County 19-0 behind the one-hit pitching of Dale Garner. It took Tullahoma two games to win the championship. Franklin County defeated the Cats 1-0 in 11 innings to force a second game. Tullahoma picked up two quick runs in the second game and that was all Muse needed as he pitched a one-hitter.

Phil Muse was named "Most Valuable Player" for pitching thirteen scoreless innings in the tournament. Mike Howell, Ronnie James, Joey Tuck, and Scott Darlington also made the All-tournament team.

The Tullahoma Chapter of the TOEC wound up its year with a tea honoring mothers and women teachers at the home of Mrs. Ruby Murphy, club sponsor. The Club also helped Tullahoma firemen collect toys for chidren at Christmas and made food baskets for needy families. Two field trips were made to ARO and Chattanooga to learn about office work. For money-making projects the club sold donuts twice. In the fall members attended a convention in Nashville where they ran for state offices. Melody Shealy was elected Middle Tennessee Vice President. Senior club officers were Melody Shealy, president; Lisa Oxford, vice-president; Van Davis, secretary; Barbara Tedder, treasurer; Donna Stewart, reporter. Junior officers were Kim Dowdy, president; Sara Davis, vice-president; Jackie Williams, secretary; Pam South, treasurer; Kim Heiman, reporter.

Energetic Resumé Staff Recounts School Year

The THS Resumé Staff was assigned the monumental task of reviewing, recording, and presenting all the events of the 1974-75 school year. Under the gifted leadership of Mrs. Sylvia Garner, several individual staffs overcame numerous problems to complete the job.

The Feature Staff reported on the year's special events and on the various courses offered at THS. The Club Staff recounted the activities of each school organization, while the Class Staff arranged students portraits. Athletic events were discussed by the Sports Staff. The Business Staff led in soliciting advertisements from Tullahoma businesses. Co-editoris-in-chief, Theresa Davison and Tommy Cooper, harmonized the labors of each staff.

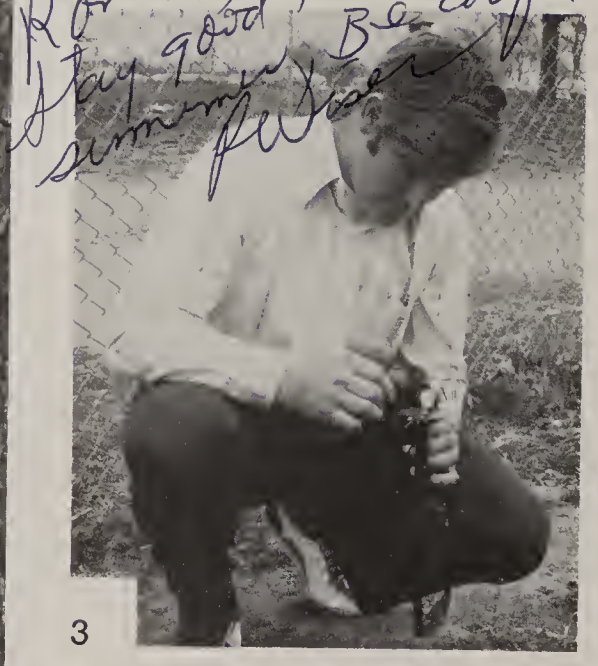

Finally, after much hard work and patience, the treasured goal was reached. Hopefully, the Resume´ is a book of cherished memories.

Echo Receives Superior Rating from THSPA

Press Club members were very proud this year as the Echo, our news publication, received a superior rating from the Tennessee High School Press Association. They also were state-runner-up in the David Lipscomb Ratings. Writers on the different staffs have kept students informed on school curriculum and activities.

Aside from the paper, members of the Press Club have kept up the sign in front of the school, sponsored the annual presentation of the Keller Trophy to an outstanding varsity basketball player, and elected outstanding players from the intramural games. Serving as excellent sponsors were Mrs. Blanche McClure, Mrs. Susan Parker, and Mrs. Bobbie Randle. Leading the Press Club at meetings and turning out the paper were Greg Anspach, editor-in-chief, and Sandra Kidd, assistant editor-in-chief.

The major concert performance of the THS Chorus was a special Christmas season presentation of The Messiah. The THS Singers, a smaller group of students who had particular aptitudes and distinctive talents in music, performed before the student body in assemblies. The Tullahoma junior high schools also heard the skills of the group. The Singers provided intermission entertainment during the Miss Tullahoma Pageant and sang at a Rotary Club meeting. Mr. Max Weaver directed the Chorus with assistance from Mr. Tom Powell.

Members of the group who made the All-State Chorus during a recital in Nashville were Ricky Mines, Debbie Morris, and Cindy Gatto.

THS Stage Band Places Third in Jazz Festival

The THS Stage Band sponsored and organized its fourth annual Jazz Festival and proud members won a third place trophy while competing against many other more experienced bands. The Stage Band performed for the student body in numerous concerts and also traveled to area junior highs. A May performance highlighted the spring concert season. The Highland Rim School for Girls also enjoyed the band's lively fast-moving music. The band provided intermission entertainment for the Miss Tullahoma pageant and played at a Halloween festival at Bel-Aire Elementary School. Mr. Tom Powell ably directed the band.

Band Performs on Stage, in Community

A memorable year for the Tullahoma High School Band came to its climax with the appearance of the King Brothers Circus here. Previously, however, the band displayed their talents by marching at halftime at football games and by participating in the Homecoming and Christmas parades.

Enthusastic band members raised money through the sales of newspaper subscriptions and with their annual Pancake Day. Both of these projects were aided by a newly formed Band Boosters' Club.

The Pep Band continued to arouse the spirit of the students during pep sessions and at basketball games. The week of March tenth was designated as Music in Our Schools Week and to commemorate this occasion, the band played for the Student Body in assembly.

An instructor from Tennessee Tech visited THS to direct the band on contest music. The advice was put to good use during an April appearance in competition at MTSU.

Curriculum

Administrators Keep School Running Smoothly

The enormous task of keeping THS functioning properly fell upon the hard-working administrative staff, headed by Mr. Creed McClure, who also served as president of the TSSAA Board of Control. The staff was constantly busy handling financial matters, attendance reports, and various other duties. Vice-principal, Mr. Kelton Garner, was the head disciplinarian which included conducting "sunrise services".

Constantly buried under mountains of paperwork were secretaries, Mrs. Ruth Throneberry and Mrs. Dottie Culbertson. Helping with various office duties was Mrs. Edna Overall, whose main job was typing and duplicating tests for teachers. Mrs. Virginia Batts supervised the cafeteria and Mr. Roger Caudle replaced Mr. Raymond Deaton as head custodian.

Counselors Take Personal Look into Student's Future

Counseling students for future interests was one of the main functions of the guidance staff. Helping students in this capacity were guidance counselors, Mr. Mike Stanton and Mrs. Clara Garrison. Mr. Stanton, whose main objective was to coordinate affairs in the vocational field, found time to coach the Senior AAU Junior Olympic Team. Mrs. Garrison dealt with all phases of college preparations. Maintaining order in the guidance office was secretary, Mrs. Lorraine Williams whose job included organizing files and keeping records. During her extended illness, Mrs. Williams was replaced by Mrs. Sara Stanton. Various students spent their free period running errands for the staff.

Mr. Tommy Fairchild, the resource teacher for exceptional students, also assisted teachers in planning instructional programs for these people. During his spare time he "moonlighted" as a blacksmith.

Library Provides Center for Student Studies

Upon the shelves of the THS library lay the resources necessary for acquiring an education. Students could obtain periodicals and newspapers as well as reference materials. Mrs. Myrtle Burchett and Mrs. Sarah Ray efficiently managed the library.

Behind these shelves existed a new world, the study hall. Order was maintained in this world by Pat Welsh and Joe Baron. Students studied quietly because of the threat of flagpole duty. Study hall proved to be a vital portion of school life as it offered time to relax and study.

Language; Arts Add New Music Theory Course

Composing and arranging songs along with taking musical dictation were some of the accomplishments in the new music theory course offered this year by the department of language and arts. Students interested in this course were instructed by Music Director Max Weaver, who also directed the band and chorus, with time left for Junior High classes. Assisting Mr. Weaver with the band and chorus was Junior High Music Director, Mr. Tom Powell, who also directed the stage band.

With the expert hand of Mrs. Jimmie Lou Smith, art students expressed their creative talents through sculpting, painting, drawing, and other endeavors.

Expressing their talents in another direction were those students enrolled in speech and dramatics. Aiding students in these fields was Mrs. Donna Benek, who was also responsible for the Senior Play.

For advancement in culture, students were offered a choice of three foreign languages—French, taught by Mrs. Emily Habel; Spanish, taught by Mrs. Edna Madden; and Latin, taught by Mr. Francis Bass.

Verbs, Nouns, Adjectives — Part of English Study of Underclassmen

Verbs, nouns, and adjectives played important parts in sophomore and junior English studies with the sophomores also studying Julius Caesar. Junior Classes focused their attention mainly towards American works by reading various short stories and interpreting poetry. With skits, discussions, and oral reports students were able to relay their ideas to others.

Mrs. Elise Bass, veteran English teacher, ably instructed her sophomore classes as well as directing the FTA. Along with Drama instructing and coaching, Mrs. Donna Benek and Coach David Duvall comprised the remainder of the sophomore English team.

Miss Virginia Woodall taught Junior English and sponsored the Student Council. Making up the rest of the Junior instruction team were Mrs. Edna Madden, Spanish instructor, and Mrs. Susan Parker who also helps with Senior English and assists with the school paper.

"To be or not to be..." Echoes in Minds of Senior English Scholars

"To be or not to be . . ." echoed in the minds of Senior English students as they prepared to recite selected passages from Hamlet. With a touch of Medieval heroism and a bit of Elizabethan chivalry, Senior English students received not only a literary background but also a subtle education in English history. The year's activities climaxed late in the spring with the composition of the seniors' final research paper.

Miss Debbie Pittenger replaced Mrs. Ann Hickerson at the beginning of the second semester when Mrs. Hickerson returned to college to complete work on her masters. Miss Pittenger was previously a student teacher under Mrs. Donna Benek. Mrs. Bobbie Randle and Mrs. Susan Parker composed the rest of the Senior English Department. Students participated in the various activities and methods of study prepared for them by these concerned teachers and graduated with a greater appreciation of their language.

Students who were interested in the field of science could openly express themselves through the excellent science courses offered at THS. Interested students followed Mrs. Jane Weaver's skillful guidance as she led them through the fascinating realm of chemistry. Mr. Hulon Watson, Mr. W. T. Pyron, and Miss Bethanne Hutton provided outstanding leadership in basic biology concepts. Students dissected cats and identified unknown bacteria in Mr. Pyron's advanced biology class. Social Scientists Study Past to Cope with Future

By learning about the past through projects, maps, reports, and various other activities, students of the social sciences became better able to cope with the future. With an accent on student interest, the social studies staff endeavored to stimulate a concern for past cultures, American heritage, social interactions, economic theory, and geography.

Climaxing the U. S. History year, ten superior history students and two alternates were selected to represent THS at the annual history contest held at Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro.

World traveler Mr. Richard Hawkins completed his twenty-first year of teaching. Mr. Hawkins was chairman of the social studies department and taught U. S. History and advanced history. Coach Milner Carden expertly taught U. S. History, economics, and world history along with coaching cross-country. Mr. Mike Bryant has proven his versatility in this field by teaching sociology, U. S. History, American government, and geography. Coach Gary Herting took on a full load as he taught U. S. History, general mathematics, and coached football and boys' track.

Student Interest in P.E. Increases along with Rise in Credit Value

Students at Tullahoma High School seemed to make a supreme effort to stay physically fit this year. With an increase from one fourth of a credit to one third of a credit, Seniors were no longer required to participate in the program. Still the enthusiastic interest in football, basketball, golf, volleyball, gymnastics, and tennis remained.

Apart from being a break in classroom study, P. E. also developed a healthy attitude. Two people making this enjoyment possible were Mrs. Christine Bettis, who won the 1974 Open City Golf Tournament and Coach Tommy Whitaker, a former "Little All American."

Defensive Driving Helps Students Arrive Alive

At THS, Driver Education was more than just learning to drive but learning to live. It offered students a chance to learn the fundamentals of driving as well as actual experience. Procedures of driving along with careful attention to the safety laws were emphasized. Six weeks of classroom study along with two weeks of actual driving time provided students with the beneficial experience of a careful driver. Upon completion of the course these students earned a driver education certificate which could possibly have resulted in a reduction of insurance rates.

Putting their lives on the line were two courageous instructors, Coach Dale Phelps, who was boy's basketball coach and Coach David Francis who was assistant football and track coach.

Girls Acquire Job Competencies in Cosmetology and VOE

Girls enrolled in Cosmetology and VOE stored up job skills in anticipation of exciting careers upon graduation.

Mrs. Mary Alice Smith, once a professional hair dresser, ably taught her girls who were striving to complete a 1500-hour course in preparation for the State Board Exam and becoming a licensed beautician. In a professional atmosphere, students practiced giving manicures, shampooing and styling hair, giving facials, and curling and coloring techniques.

In her first year of teaching, Mrs. Ruby Murphy relied upon her varied experiences in business and secretarial work to help her girls gain competencies in office related skills. In a simulated office situation, students built skill in shorthand, typing, filing, and record keeping, along with learning to handle other office duties.

Auto Mechanics; Electronic Repair Men Train at THS

Emerging from under a grease rack or from behind a picture tube were those students interested in becoming auto mechanics and electronic repair men. Learning how to select shock absorbers, modify an engine, repair film projectors, adjust televisions and numerous other practical tasks, these boys trained for employment after high school. In actual shop surroundings students were allowed two- and three-hour blocks of time during eleventh and twelfth grades for this specialized training.

Experienced auto mechanic, Mr. Ike Turner, provided incentive as well as general know-how in teaching the facts and figures of the auto world. Students were able to put theory into practice by repairing autos belonging to classmates and teachers.

Students interested in electronics took lessons from experienced electrician, Mr. I. D. Smith. Repairing school equipment added to their experience and kept many teachers from being frustrated by a malfunctioning machine.

Job Opportunities Open to People Studying Ind. Arts; ICT

THS offered job opportunities for those students who wished to receive a vocational education through ICT or Industrial Arts. Both areas are designed to enable students to enter fulltime employment upon high school graduation. Students in ICT were able to acquire actual work experience on the job during the afternoon.

Mr. Jerry Mathis, THS baseball coach, taught vocational drafting in 2- and 3-hour blocks while Mr. Robert Wiser instructed mechanical drafting and shop. Mr. Wiser may also be seen accompanying a camera as he helps collect annual shots. Students in ICT were instructed during morning classes by Mr. Max Huddleston who became their supervisor during on-the-job training in various industries.

You're going to have some questions when you graduate.

We've got some answers.

A challenging job, for one. In electronics, say. Or sea-going engineering. Radio operation. Or aviation mechanics.

You've got over 70 career fields to choose from in the Navy. If you qualify.

Training for your hands. Your mind. For a job you can be proud of. And build a great future with.

Leading others. Or being responsible for your own work.

There'll be plenty of tough, challenging work ahead. And, of course, your share of daily chores.

But there's more to Navy life than work.

You'll travel. Have fun. Make friends that'll last a lifetime.

And if you sign up now, you won't have to report for up to six months and in some cases even longer if you qualify for a school.

Got some questions? Talk to your Navy Recruiter. He can even tell you what you qualify for before you enlist. Or call 800-841-8000 anytime. It's toll-free.

A good job. A good life. The Navy: It's a good deal.

If you've got everything you need for college except the bread, talk to the Army Man.

He won't lend you any money. But he can put you on to ways you can get to college. With the Army footing most of the bill.

He can show you how you can get a head-start on your college degree while you're on active duty. In colleges and universities on or near your post. With the Army paying 75 percent or more of your tuition.

And he'll tell you about government aid after you're out. So you can complete your education. For next to free.

Today's Army is into education. Shouldn't you look into Today's Army?

This is a resumé of one year at THS.

A year not unlike years past but unique because it's ours.
Important because it's worth remembering;
A collection of memories concerning the events, the time--our time.
But especially remember the people;
For it's the people who make this place something special.
The people of THS have determined what this year has been.
So remember us, for we'll remember you.

To a good friend of mine. Good luck ~~in the following~~ next year.

J.M.
